CHICAGO, THURSDAY, MAY 21, 1896.

LAKESIDE MEETING OPENS WELL.

The opening day of the Lakeside Jockey Club was a success as far as the weather and attendance was concerned. But what was a good programme was somewhat interfered with by the condition of the track, and the fact that there were numerous holes in it. Scratches were many and Tully Coulter's good mare California was declared out of both engagements, as she pulled up lame, after her morning work.

Paint and general cleaning up has made the surroundings bright and shapely. Mr. Nathanson was presiding judge, with Harry Kuhl as assistant. Richard Dwyer was in command of the rubber, but he had the advance flag as well, and it was fortunate he had, as in two races, there was trouble at the post.

The principal event of the day was the Hammond Handicap, one mile, for which eleven had accepted. Only seven went to the post, California, Simmons, Kamsin and Francis Pope being absentees. Redskin was favorite, with Foster's entry, Lillian E. and Merry Monarch equal second choices, the last named being backed from 5 to 4½ to 1. Dick Behan opened at 4, but went back to 10 to 1. To a good start Frankie D was quickest away followed by Lillian E and Merry Monarch, Redskin getting away last. At the quarter Lillian E was in front of the old mare, with Dick Behan in third place, Redskin and the Foster pair being the last three. At the half Frankie D was in front again, with Dick Behan second and Lillian E, third. Round the far turn Dick Behan took the lead, and at the three-quarters he had his head in front of Lillian E with Frankie D a neck before Redskin. Dick Behan led into the stretch, but Redskin was at his saddle girths and Lillian E well up. There was nothing in it but three leaders, and at the head of the stand Redskin went to the front and drawing away won handily. Little Hathersall rode Dick Behan very well, and beat Lillian E, who swerved at the eighth pole, four lengths for the place. The state of the track may be imagined from the time, which was 1:50½.

Caufield was made favorite for the opening event, but he was never dangerous, and Mamie G won in a gallop, the two outsiders, Cassa and Cunarder being second and third.

Lottie Wimmer delayed the start in the two-year-old race by acting badly at the post. There were several breakaways and Porter's filly took a good deal out of herself. In the end she got off badly, but ran a good race, being only just beaten by the favorite, Devoir, who had made all the running.

Ferryman II seemed to like the heavy going, and showed the way all around. Though he won by a length and a half from Sligo, he had had enough of it. Pinchback, the favorite, was third.

With California, Roy Lochiel and Weola scratched, Nikita had nothing to beat but Simmons in the fifth race at six furlongs. With odds on her she had no difficulty in winning handily by a length and a half.

In the last race at seven furlongs, John Hickey had it all his own way, though the rank outsider Collector showed well in the stretch and finished second.

Cy Jaynes was at Lakeside yesterday. His stable will be there next week.

Chris Smith will ship his string from St. Louis to Lakeside in a few days.

The Stock Yards Derby, half a mile, catch weights, purse $250, will be run at Lakeside on Saturday, May 23. The entries are Ike Brown, Billie Buck, E. Farrell, Calico, Lady C, Grey Dan, Bob, and Brown Dick.

T. Burns was fined $25 for being late at the post in the two-year-old race with Coin.

Tom Griffin has arrived at Lakeside with his stable, including the three-year-old, Sir Vassar.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

To be Greek and correct, according to the days that are no more, Cleophus should be Cleophas. But this is 1896 and America. A man has a right to name what he owns, and R. P. Waters called his filly, by Wagner—Linnie by Macduff, Cleophus. So Mr. Dwyer bought her. Therefore the unreasonable discussion over the a and the u in the filly's name is of the straw splitting class. Turf nomenclature has uglier corners than this. Horse Shoe Tobacco and Star Tobacco, are instances of its villainy. Of course, both are "plugs," but that doesn't aid the euphony of it. Mean while the conqueror of Suisun, registered as Cleophus, must remain Cleophus. There's talk about a renewal of the match of last Thursday for $1,000 a side. Such races, made in such spirit, are tonics to a turf which, in "these days of ours," are like Balfe's heart, "bowed down by weight of woe."

Ben Brush is sure to be the favorite—a natural one too—for three more Derbies. They are to be run at Oakley, Latonia and St. Louis. The three are worth some $38,000 and if Ben's beaten a new horse must turn him down. Brush is a noble horse: fast, strong, courageous and sensible. He does only what he has to do and beats what he has to beat. Time cuts no figure in his races, though his run-off mile at Louisville Saturday in 1:43—after the dead heat in 1:44½—is a sort of badge of speed—the colt doesn't need one, red, blue or any hue on the score of courage. So far Brush has won two stakes: the Kentucky Derby and Schulte. Three gives him a five pound penalty for the $20,000 National Derby—taken off Harlem's hands by St. Louis and the Oakley Derby, $12,500 guaranteed. Should the great Bramble colt win that he'll get the penalty in a double way—three stakes and the $5,000 limit mark. Ben Eder's in the eligible Oakley list too. He may bear the Dwyer white-gold tassel in it. The best he has to beat are Barney Schreiber's pair, Don Carillo and Schiller—who doesn't like weight—Nimrod—whom Byron McClelland seems to be nursing—and Beau Ideal II. On present showing Ben Eder could kill the Oakley bird and save Brush the five pounds in the $20,000 St. Louis race. Mr. Dwyer's after that. He didn't make a keen bargain when he paid $10,000 for the showy Ben Eder. Lady Inez can beat Eder at all turf corners, ratty looking though she may be. But the Eastern notion is a natural Dwyer notion and it is founded on good looks: Therefore McGuigan made a good sale. Mr. Dwyer, however, probably won Ben Eder's price in his bets on the Clark Stakes.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Jockey R. Isom has gone to the Sandwich Islands. He is a victim of consumption.

Like the shrewd man he is, Mike Dwyer, having bought the worst one, Ben Eder, and found it out, has done what might be expected, bought the best one, Lady Inez, at a reasonable figure, about $7000. The Lady's not much on looks, but has a warm foot and an honest heart.

Byron McClelland says that Prince Lief might have a chance against Ben Brush with 105 lbs or so up—the Prince isn't partial to weight. Mr. McClelland is however mistaken. Still the King Eric colt is likely to go well in to-day's Oakley Derby.

TO-DAY'S OAKLEY DERBY.

CINCINNATI, O., May 20.—The $12,500 Oakley Derby is the fourth race on the Cincinnati Jockey Club's opening card to-morrow. It will get some five or six starters, the Dwyer pair and three or four others. Prince Lief and Semper Ego will cause Ben Brush to start. Beside that, Mr. Dwyer stands to win some $12,000 in bets made six weeks ago. Ben Eder is far from able to handle the second pair with safety. So the great Bramble colt will carry the white, gold tassel. Simms is expected to ride him, and the pair will be stout odds on favorites. Prince Lief is fit; so is Semper Ego. The Prince will be second choice, is considered sure to beat Eder and expected to argue it out stoutly with Brush. Loki is the "piker's" hope. He worked the Derby route Tuesday with Reiff and 103 pounds up in 2:35, the mile in 1:40¼. Parson will hardly do, maiden and gelding allowance and all. The Derby field officially entered is as follows:

Horses.	Amt.	Horses.	Amt.
Ben Brush		Semper Ego.....	$ 20
Ben Eder	$150	Loki.....	45
Prince Lief.....	100	Parson.....	16

GOSSIP FROM ST. LOUIS.

St. Louis, Mo., May 20.—Damocles won the last race, but Jockey Barrett fouled Martin on Frontier at the head of stretch in the rankest manner. Damocles was disqualified and his jockey indefinitely suspended.

The betting ring dispute went against Ullman and twelve books cut in.

Pat Dunne has sold Free Advice to Tom Ryan for $5,000.

THE ST. LOUIS SQUABBLE.

The betting jangle at St. Louis isn't a tonic for racing. Alex. Ullman's effort to make his privilege pay, created the following notice from President Maffitt:

Messrs. Alex. Ullman & Co., city: Gentlemen—We are advised that you have posted the following notice, to-wit:

"Bookmakers wishing to draw in for the next three days can do so by paying their pro rata of $1600 per day for five races, in case books average less than sixteen. Closes at 1:45 p. m."

Your contract with this association does not justify you in making such a rule. Is is not in accord with the custom add is unreasonable. Am instructed to advise you that it is the view of this association that any reputable bookmaker shall be permitted, for the consideration of $100 per day, as usual, to sell pools, subject to such reasonable rules as to mode of selling and such as are customary, as you may prescribe. If you persist in the course which the association has condemned and thinks unwarranted it will exercise the authority to grant to reputable bookmakers the right to conduct at the association grounds without your consent.

But the cheapness of it all comes out of President Maffitt's plea against Ullman's injunction move. In that plea the old debasing idea that racing is gambling is raised as a reason why the courts should not give Ullman what he sought. It succeeded too.

THE MONTANA MEETINGS.

Manager Tipton, of the Anaconda and Butte Montana Meetings, issues the following circular letter to horsemen:

The Montana meetings are now a fixture. The present management starts out with brand new equipments: new grand stands, new betting sheds, new barns, new paddocks, and full mile tracks as good as the best. The frequency with which horses have raced over these tracks should be sufficient testimony as to their safety.

Successful meetings have been held annually for the past eight years, but from present indications, 1896 promises to surpass previous years in all that makes first-class meetings, viz: attendance, betting, ample and complete accommodations.

Horsemen may come here with the complete assurance that every event will go as advertised. Past meetings have always been conducted with a view to maintaining absolute good faith with visiting horsemen and I do not propose to initiate the system of declaring off races. Contesting fields have always been small and while I hope to somewhat increase the number of horses, yet we cannot expect, and, in fact, are neither looking for nor wishing to see, double tiers of starters.

Montana, notwithstanding that her silver mines are practically closed, is probably the most prosperous state in the union, and her people are perfectly devoted to racing, hence large attendance and excellent betting. With fair contests, and figuring from past records, it should be safe predicting that pools amounting to $50,000 per day will be the average for 1896.

The climate during the summer months is uniformly perfect for racing—cloudless skies, warm days and cool nights—and it has been demonstrated that horses from all sections of the country campaigning here during the hot season take on rather than lose flesh, and consequently are big and stout and in much better shape for bruising races in the fall months than those that have raced in the excessive heat of other sections.

All railroads running into Montana have made a rate on horses of one fare for round trip. You pay full fare here and return free of charge. Rates apply on all points from the coast and from St. Paul and Missouri river. After horses reach Anaconda it is only twenty-seven miles to Butte, thus giving forty-one days' racing with practically no shipment. Other Montana meetings will follow. Programmes for running races will be issued bi-weekly. There will be three or more races each day, the purses averaging $300 each. Entries to stakes and handicaps close May 25.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

||The starting machine intermittently used in the east is that of Chris. Fitzgerald and Curley Brown, tried this spring at New Orleans.

Mr. Patterson, who bred and owns Suisun, will use the filly mildly at Oakley and then retire her for the season.

A third son of Peter Weber is riding in California. His name is Joe, and he is said, by good judges, to be as clever as was Charley four years ago.

The reason for the declaration of the Keene's colt King Arthur II—brother to Freeland—from the Brooklyn and Suburban handicaps is that he has broken down.

The latest device of interest to horsemen to come from the Antipodes is a machine for registering the positions of horses in a finish.

Col. Milton Young, of McGrathiana, has sold the following yearlings to Clifford Porter of Louisville: b. c, by Strathmore—Beatitude; ch. c, by Strathmore—Skylight; ch. c, by Whistle-Jacket—On the Lea; ch. fc, by Fonso—Flyaway; b. c, by Frontissimo—Overture.
